HOW TO CARE FOR THERMOFOIL PRODUCTS

As with any material, smoke, oils, grease and sunlight will wear and discolor thermofoil. Fortunately, keeping thermofoil parts clean and looking new is very easily done.

Everyday spills and splatters can be cleaned with warm water and mild soap. If desired, a non-waxing spray polish will revitalize the dirty and aging parts. Harsh chemicals and cleansers such as acetone and lacquer thinners are unnecessary and will permanently damage thermofoil.

Thermofoil is sensitive to long-term heat exposure. Please keep this in mind when designing a kitchen layout. A heat shield is needed to deflect the heat generated by stoves, ovens and small appliances. It is always suggested to use stovetop hoods when cooking to help disperse heat properly.
